

8.00 credits

30.0 h

Q1

This biannual learning unit is not being organized in 2022-2023 !

Teacher(s)	Francq Stéphanie ;Van Boxstael Jean-Louis ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	The course focuses on conflicts of jurisdictions and on conflicts of laws. It is divided into two parts. On the one hand, it describes general theoretical notions, the understanding of which is necessary to solve practical problems. On the other hand, it analyzes rules prevailing in each area of private law
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : The course of private international law aims at giving students the basic tools for solving problems that can occur in international transactions between individuals in the field of private law (it covers family law as well as commercial transactions). As far as the legal sources are concerned, priority is given to the core rules of Belgian private international law. They are however presented in a comparative law perspective. The growing influence of the European Union in the field of private international law is also presented 1
Other infos	Several materials are made available, namely, textbooks and manuals
Faculty or entity in charge	BUDR

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Master [120] in Law (shift schedule)	DRHD2M	8		