In the week before the Easter holidays, test of the business communication techniques: business meeting, debate, negotiation, etc. (15 %) 5. Oral test at the end of Q2 (15%) If students don't take one or more parts of the evaluation (without a justified reason such as a medical attest), they will be given an "unjustified absence", even if they have taken all the other parts of the evaluation. If the student has not attended the course and therefore not passed the different parts of the continuous assessment, he/she will have to retake all parts in August. Both presentations (text and company) will be done individually. The teaching unit of LNEER 1532 is divided in three parts. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Part 1 consists of the vocabulary of the first and second semester as well as the memorandum based on a video fragment. 2. Part 2 consists of business communication techniques, the presentation of a text and the presentation of a company. 3. Part 3 consists of the oral test in which the student shows he has thoroughly integrated the business vocabulary as well as the content treated in the course. In case this grading mark for Q 1 is insufficient (below 10/20) the student has to resit this part in June (he has to resit the entire vocabulary of Q 1 + in case of a note below 10 for the memo, he writes a new memo). If the student does not resit this part in June, he will lose its benefits and will receive a grading mark for this part of 0/20. All subdivisions of Part 1 and 2 (= permanent evaluation) for which the students have succeeded, will not be represented during the exam session of september. Attendance at the course is compulsory. If the teacher deems it useful, he/she may ask the jury to prohibit a student who has not followed the learning activities regularly to register for the course examination (RGEE - art. 72). If due to sanitary measures, the permanent evaluations cannot take place and if we have the possibility to organise a face-to-face written exam, we will opt for this possibility and will organise a face-to-face written exam on vocabulary and memo. The oral examination would be maintained as a supplement to assess the students' oral communicative skills, on TEAMS if it cannot be organised on campus.
Teaching methods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lessons in groups of max. 20 students. • Note attesting to the "hours of presence If circumstances (in terms of health or the possibilities offered to us by the university authorities) permit, "face-to-face hours" consist of live teaching in a room allocated by the ILV. If "live teaching" is not possible, we will switch to digital lessons through Teams where the presence of students is required. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Workload Classroom hours : 60 h Self-study (including e-learning): 90 h <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Extension of business and economical vocabulary. In all cases the vocabulary is presented in context by means of topical listening documents. Additional exercises will have to be done at home (e-learning on the Moodle platform) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training and development of listening skills through authentique documents focussing mainly on economical and commercial themes, by means of classroom teaching. Additional exercises will have to be done at home (e-learning on the Moodle platform) • Training and development of speaking skills in professional contexts e.g. the debate, the negotiation, the business meeting, the presentation, the job interview etc.) by means of classroom teaching . Additional exercises will have to be done at home (e-learning on the Moodle platform).

Content	This teaching unit focuses mainly on oral production. It deals with themes related to the area of study. Video and audio fragments and texts are used to illustrate the themes. Each theme will be followed by discussions or role plays giving the student the possibility to use the newly acquired vocabulary and structures. Business communication techniques (meetings, negotiations, debates, business communication on the phone and presentations) will be part of the exercises. Students will give presentations about economical subjects (text) and an enterprise in Flandres. They will also write memorandums on economical subjects with personal comments which will be corrected by the teacher.
