Teaching methods	Class organisation Students have 2 hours of class a week throughout the academic year. All students have the opportunity to be exempted from class attendance and continuous assessment activities (see Assessment section below). To be exempted, students need to contact the course coordinators to request an oral interview (details and instructions will be provided by email at the beginning of term one). Methodology Class time is used for activities to work on students' language skills. Students are expected to prepare for class, complete all assignments and participate actively in all activities. In addition, they also have to complete continuous assessment activities on Moodle (see deadlines in the course notes) and study self-tuition material.
Content	The course covers the four academic language skills: reading, writing, listening and speaking as well as presentation techniques, vocabulary and grammar extension. By the end of the course, students should have reached the following levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Listening comprehension and reading comprehension: C1</li> <li>• Oral expression and writing skills: B2+</li> </ul>
