This biannual learning is being organized in 2023-2024

Teacher(s)	Cavalieri Marco ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Prerequisites	LARKO2372 Archaeology and history of the art of Rome and the Roman provinces
Main themes	The seminar focuses on specific problems of interpretation in relation to the use of archaeological sources for the reconstruction of social and political relations during the Iron Age and the historical period; the geographical context studied covers pre-Roman and Roman Italy, as well as the provinces of the Roman Empire.
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	Continuous evaluation during the seminar (50% points) and personal paper following a presentation by the student (50%).
Teaching methods	The course is structured in a series of lectures hold by the teacher or by invited speakers alternated with seminar sessions around particular issues presented at the beginning of the seminar. Students are invited to prepare for the lessons by the reading of some papers or extracts from books and monographies (the list will be furnished at the beginning of the semester). Students are invited to participate actively to the seminars preparing oral presentations of a personal research. The seminar may also take the form of an in-depth analysis of papers on a specific subject with a presentation (PPT) by the students. The seminar could involve some excursions, if certain conditions regarding the funding and the agenda will be fulfilled.
Content	The seminar will focus on Roman sanctuaries. Several aspects of the question will be analysed, including the analysis of material culture and divinatory practices in relation to iconographic, literary and epigraphic sources.
Inline resources	Pdfs of the courses and bibliography
Bibliography	Liste bibliographique fournie par l'enseignant pendant le cours. Pour une éventuelle préparation préalable, les ouvrages conseillés sont : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• C.
