

5.00 credits

30.0 h

Q1

This learning unit is not open to incoming exchange students!

Teacher(s)	Brouwer Jan-Willem ;Weymans Wim ;
Language :	English
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	To identify the key-moments of the European integration, to underline individual and institutional constraints, to evaluate the impact of economical and external factors and to analyze the influence of internal factors.
Learning outcomes
Evaluation methods	Written exam.
Teaching methods	This class will be taught on campus.
Content	The student will be able to understand the various projects, crises and relaunches in the history of European integration, linked to political, economic, military or institutional questions. The course shall focus on converging or diverging elements, taken from different episodes of the history of European integration, asking how these crises have modified the paths, the plans, and the visions sketched by the so-called "founding fathers". Finally, the course will show how history can shed a new light on current debates.
Bibliography	See Moodle for details
Other infos	Prerequisite: none. Support: a table of contents and slides accompanying the lectures will be made available on Moodle.
Faculty or entity in charge	EURO

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Master [120] in Communication	CORP2M	5
Master [120] in Translation	TRAD2M	5
Master [120] in History	HIST2M	5
Master [120] in European Studies	EURO2M	5
Master [120] in Public Administration	ADPU2M	5
Master [120] in Journalism	EJL2M	5		