

5.00 credits

30.0 h + 6.0 h

Q1

This learning unit is not open to incoming exchange students!

Teacher(s)	Husson Jean-François ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	The course of finances and public institutions aims at providing economic and institutional tools intended to apprehend the finances of the local, regional and Community authorities and the policies followed on the matter. This course will develop the principles, notions and budgetary techniques of the various levels of authorities. It will present the history and the work of the institutions and will attempt to analyze their mode of financing. It will finally take care to give the instruments making it possible to pose an evaluation on the basis of criterion of distributive justice, efficiency and political control.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 At the end of this course, the students will be able to understand, analyze and evaluate the institutions and the mechanisms and decisions as regards public finances (receipts and expenditures) at the local level (Commune and CPAS), regional (Walloon Region and of Brussels-Capital) and Community (the French and German-speaking Community).
Evaluation methods	Group work on a budget analysis: written work and oral presentation (face to face or remotely). Depending on the circumstances, the assessment may be limited to the written work. Where a student is repeatedly absent, an additional individual work may be requested from the absentee. In the second session, the work is to be corrected by the students who must present the course evaluation.
Teaching methods	The course is given face-to-face and / or remotely depending on health reasons. 30 h course. General presentation supported by examples and exercises and articulated with group work.
Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the role and functions of the State in the economy - an overview of the Belgian institutional framework (up to local level) - the revenues and expenditures of the different levels of power and social security (taking the local sector as the main example), as well as the question of budget balances and their financing (debt) . the motivations and effects of budgetary and fiscal instruments - a framework for analyzing budgetary and fiscal policies.
Inline resources	See the Moodle page of the course.
Bibliography	Voir la page Moodle du cours. See the Moodle page of the course.
Faculty or entity in charge	OPES

Programmes containing this learning unit (UE)
Program title	Acronym	Credits	Prerequisite	Learning outcomes
Master [120] in Economic and Social Policy (shift schedule)	OPES2M	5		