Evaluation methods	Written exam with open-ended (short and long development) and/or closed questions: 100% of the points. Mathematical rounding is achieved when the final grade (addition of exam parts) is \geq at 10/20 (= pass threshold, e.g. 10.5 = 11 but 10.49 = 10). Below 10/20, the final score is rounded to the lower unit (e.g. 9.78 = 9/20). The format of the exam is the same for the first (June) and second (August-September) session.
Teaching methods	Lectures are given alternatively with supervised practical sessions and autonomous e-learning (Zech, E. & Jaeken, M. (2021). Formation à l'entretien et aux compétences d'aide en auto-apprentissage : HelpingSkills (2e ed.). Université catholique de Louvain. https://uclouvain.be/course/view.php?id=306 dedicated to learning basic helping skills). Supervised practical work requires the personal and active involvement of students. Participation in supervised practical work is not mandatory. However, in case of participation, it is required that students commit to respect a duty of confidentiality regarding the information that will be exchanged there, through an informed consent relating to participation, the professionalism and self-disclosure that they will have to sign during the first TP session. Participation in practical work is strongly recommended and is not subject to a certificative evaluation. In case of breach of this consent and the duty of confidentiality in particular, a disciplinary procedure could be initiated before the VRAE on the basis of Articles 34 and 35 of the RGEE.
Content	The lectures (volume 1 ; 30 hours) present the key-concepts with illustrations of helping interviews situations and the presentation of the practical exercises frame to be performed by the students in subgroups of 4. Attention will

	be paid to see the content of the lectures before the practical sessions so that the practical exercises can be carried out on the basis of the theoretical knowledge acquired. The Volume 2 (15 hours) deals with the practical exercises. They are subdivided in (1) sessions organized in series supervised by facilitators that have themselves a practice of the interview (7 sessions of 2 hours). If necessary due to the health situation, these sessions will be provided remotely and their duration will be subject to change. (2) work done « at home » in subgroups of 4 students (6 exercises). The practical exercises consist of role plays and several guided exercises that intend to acquire know-how and way of being in relation to doing helping interviews at a basic level of skill. If necessary due to the health situation, these homework assignments will be adapted so that they can be carried out remotely while preserving the safety of the students. (3) self-learning of basic relational skills with an e-learning website (this site presents theoretical backgrounds, videos clips, exercises and decoding of the responses, MCQ tests, Jaeken & Zech, 2021) : https://uclouvain.be/enrol/index.php?id=306.
