| Evaluation methods | Grading will be based on (i) weekly reading assignments and related exercises (30% - continuous evaluation. The grade will carry over to the August session); (ii) a research paper (70%). |
| Teaching methods | This course is a seminar. |
| Content | The seminar studies territorial politics from three main perspectives: first, how the polity of Western European nation-states has been affected by processes of regionalization; second, how policymaking and policy implementation are altered by regionalization; and, third, how politics within regionalized states reflects multilevel dynamics. |
