This biannual learning unit is not being organized in 2023-2024 !

This learning unit is not open to incoming exchange students!

Teacher(s)	Burnet Régis ;
Language :	French
Place of the course	Louvain-la-Neuve
Main themes	In order to achieve this end, - a group of non-canonical texts from the inter- or neo-testamentary period will be studied; the selection will be guided by the interest of these texts for the interpretation of the New Testament; - these texts will be situated in their political, social, religious and literary context.
Learning outcomes	At the end of this learning unit, the student is able to : 1 - for the inter- or neo-testamentary period, either to situate historically and understand correctly non-canonical texts, 2 or situate in their socio-historical context some events, persons and movements.
Content	2022-2023 The setting of the Catholic epistles The so-called Catholic epistles (1-2-3 Jn, 1-2P, Jude...) are often unknown and their production environment is highly hypothetical. From a precise reading of these different epistles, we will try to determine, by carrying out a work of internal criticism, in what context they could have been written.
