Admission

For the specific conditions of this program : refer to the French version

Information

Learning outcomes

The minor in criminology invites students to examine crime, deviance, marginality and the way society monitors these issues as well as introducing them to the basic disciplines of criminology.

The minor offers students of legal sciences, political and social sciences, psychological and educational sciences and medical sciences an additional period of training in a field close to their own.

It could be the prompt a student needs to change his/her study path and, in this case, reduces the number of mandatory lessons to take in the first year of the Masters in criminology.

Possible trainings at the end of the programme

Majors-minors leading directly to a Masters program/s :

All 1st level UCL student who has taken the minor in criminology at UCL is permitted to study for a Masters in criminology.

Majors-minors leading to a Masters program/s provided other criteria are fulfilled:

All other students with a 1st level university qualification may study for a Masters in criminology provided certain conditions are fulfilled amounting to 15 credits maximum. Depending on his/her path of study, the student may be exempt from studying one of the following courses.

How exams are organized

1 Registering for exams

The student registered for a minor in criminology obtains a registration form from his/her faculty of origin and completes the "customary" form which the faculty provides him/her with. .

In order to register for the oral exams for the minor in criminology, the student is asked to consult the bulletin board of the Ecole de Criminologie (Hall of the Faculty of LAw and Criminology - bulletin board located near More 57) or the Ecole de Criminologie's site:

The student must then check the final exam time. The dates when the final exam dates will be posted up are indicated on the paper valves and on the electronic valves.
