Introduction

Admission

For the specific conditions of this program : refer to the French version

Information

Learning outcomes

To give the student a better understanding of " politics ", through an introductory course covering the three core dimensions of politics (studied in greater depth in the baccalaureate in political science) : - the way the state and its various institutions are run, the various actors and groups who compete to direct the running of public affairs, the attitudes and behavior of citizens, both in Belgium and in a comparative fashion;- the major developments in international relations and institutions;- public action : the role of public administration, public policy, relations between those in administration and citizens, the way public action is assessed

Teaching method

Evaluation

Possible trainings at the end of the programme

- Direct access to the master's in political sciences for bachelors in human and social science and for bachelors in sociology and anthropology. - Access under conditions for other bachelors (with the consent of the person in charge of the program) : consideration will be given to all of the courses the student has taken as part of his/her baccalaureate, and in the event of some course not having been taken, these will be added to the Master's in Political Science program (maximum 15 credits).
