Introduction

Introduction

Teaching profile

Learning outcomes

The program, which amounts to 30 credits, is intended to be an interdisciplinary subject as it offers courses in law, economics, history and civilization and political science. The aims of the course are twofold: equip students with general theoretical training which meets university demand in the field of European integration whilst at the same time providing them with an introduction to what's going on in the European integration process in the 'European current affairs' class, as well as getting students started on documentary research into European affairs.

On successful completion of this programme, each student is able to :

1. Maîtriser, avec la rigueur exigée par les études européennes, les fondements théoriques (connaissances, concepts, outils, ...) qui constituent les prérequis indispensables dans une perspective de (ré)orientation vers le master en études européennes.
2. S'appropriier et maîtriser les fondements de la démarche de recherche scientifique (méthodologie de recherche) spécifique aux études européennes, prérequis indispensables dans une perspective de (ré)orientation vers le master en études européennes.
3. Faire preuve d'une capacité d'un mode de raisonnement spécifique aux études européennes avec rigueur.
4. Appréhender, questionner, analyser, discuter et résoudre une problématique d'études européennes, en mobilisant les fondements disciplinaires et méthodologiques pertinents.
5. Développer un angle de lecture et une analyse critique et réflexive spécifiques aux études européennes.

COURSE PREREQUISITES

A document entitled (nb: not available for this programme leuro100i) specifies the activities (course units - CU) with one or more prerequisite(s) within the study programme, that is the CU whose learning outcomes must have been certified and for which the credits must have been granted by the jury before the student is authorised to sign up for that activity.

These activities are identified in the study programme: their title is followed by a yellow square.

As the prerequisites are a requirement of enrolment, there are none within a year of a course.

The prerequisites are defined for the CUs for different years and therefore influence the order in which the student can enrol in the programme's CUs.

In addition, when the panel validates a student's individual programme at the beginning of the year, it ensures the consistency of the individual programme:

- It can change a prerequisite into a corequisite within a single year (to allow studies to be continued with an adequate annual load);
- It can require the student to combine enrolment in two separate CUs it considers necessary for educational purposes.

For more information, please consult regulation of studies and exams.

THE PROGRAMME'S COURSES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

For each UCL training programme, a reference framework of learning outcomes specifies the competences expected of every graduate on completion of the programme. You can see the contribution of each teaching unit to the programme's reference framework of learning outcomes in the document "In which teaching units are the competences and learning outcomes in the programme's reference framework developed and mastered by the student?"

Admission

Specific Admission Requirements

Since the minor in European Studies is first and foremost a general introductory course, it is open to all baccalaureate students of UCL as far as the major cursus allows the student to do it. There are no entry requirements and there are no restrictions to the number of students allowed on the course.

For more information, please see the table resumed and presented bachelor's programmes of UCL and minors that are attainable: <https://uclouvain.be/programme-mineures-2013.html>

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams (<https://uclouvain.be/fr/decouvrir/rgee.html>). More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

Possible trainings at the end of the programme

The minor is first and foremost an introductory minor course. Nevertheless, students who have taken the minor in European studies may go on to the Master 120 in European Studies programs (EURO2M).
