COURSE PREREQUISITES

There are no prerequisites between course units (CUs) for this programme, i.e. the programme activity (course unit, CU) whose learning outcomes are to be certified and the corresponding credits awarded by the jury before registration in another CU.

THE PROGRAMME'S COURSES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

For each UCLouvain training programme, a reference framework of learning outcomes specifies the competences expected of every graduate on completion of the programme. You can see the contribution of each teaching unit to the programme's reference framework of learning outcomes in the document "In which teaching units are the competences and learning outcomes in the programme's reference framework developed and mastered by the student?"

MINCOMU - Information

Access Requirements

Specific access requirements

Students who are taking the baccalaureate in human and social sciences have priority access to this course. Students taking the baccalaureate in sociology and anthropology, political science, economics, management, law, the arts of psychology may of course be interested in taking this course alongside their main subject. It should also be noted that the issue of information, the popularization and media coverage of knowledge makes this minor relevant to students taking a baccalaureate in science, agronomy, medicine or exact science.

Admission to the minor course will be based on competitive exams, with students invited to present a training project. A different selection system based on different criteria will make it possible to decide between the students. Criteria will include the candidate's motivation and the coherence of his training project.

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams (<https://uclouvain.be/fr/decouvrir/rgee.html>). More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".
