Learning outcomes

The bachelor's programme in Law introduces to the principles of both private and public law. Its aim however is also to train the students to the rigour and precision essential for the reading, reasoning and expression of legal materials. In addition, it offers an opening into other disciplines... Law is not a science constructed in isolation. It mirrors social values, is linked to history and is dependent on psychological, economic, sociological and other such realities.

The knowledge and skills to be acquired throughout the bachelor's programme of Law are three-fold. Firstly, the student is trained in the correct use of the "tools" and strategies for learning how to learn (grasping the methodology linked to the diversity of the formal sources of Law and the knowledge of languages other than French). Secondly, they are taught to master the concepts required in order to develop a spirit of critical analysis of the Law. And thirdly, they are introduced to a number of juridical fields, in which they will develop their analytical skills.

Law as a discipline still bears the hallmarks of sovereignty over a given territory and over a national community. European Law and International Law, however have a growing influence.

The international dimensions of the programme are reflected principally in the presence of the course in European Law as part of the major. They are also clearly present in the course on Comparative Law, given in a language other than French, and in other optional courses aimed at introducing the student to the relativity of the juridical systems.

As for the international exchanges, these are only organised at master's level.

On successful completion of this programme, each student is able to :

1. CONNAÎTRE ET COMPRENDRE

Connaître et comprendre le rôle de la norme, les principes gouvernant son élaboration et son application, les étapes essentielles de l'évolution du droit, le contenu des principales règles du droit positif belge, l'impact sur celui-ci des normes européennes et internationales et les traits essentiels de certains systèmes étrangers.

1.1. Maîtriser la langue du droit, c'est-à-dire le vocabulaire juridique, les concepts et les institutions du droit, les principes et méthodes gouvernant son élaboration, sa hiérarchisation, son interprétation, son application, son contrôle et son abrogation.

1.2. Connaître les étapes essentielles de l'évolution du droit et de ses institutions, de même que les courants de la pensée juridique.

1.3. Comprendre le rôle de la norme, du juge et des autres acteurs du droit dans un Etat de droit moderne.

1.4. Maîtriser les techniques destinées à rechercher, référencer, lire, comprendre, confronter, utiliser et critiquer les sources du droit (législation, jurisprudence, doctrine).

1.6. Connaître et comprendre l'influence qu'ont certaines normes et institutions européennes et internationales sur ces différentes branches du droit.

1.7. Connaître quelques traits essentiels de ces mêmes branches du droit à l'aune de quelques systèmes étrangers et maîtriser les techniques et les réflexes de recherche en droit comparé aux fins d'approfondir ces connaissances.

1.8. Rechercher, lire et comprendre des documents juridiques écrits et en néerlandais et en anglais ou en allemand.

1.9. Être capable de suivre un cours universitaire et en néerlandais et en anglais ou en allemand.

2. APPLIQUER

Passer de l'abstraction de la norme aux faits concrets et inversement et donc pouvoir apporter des solutions argumentées à un problème juridique diagnostiqué de manière autonome.

2.1. Dans l'une ou l'autre branche du droit, pouvoir, de manière autonome, diagnostiquer un problème juridique, en discerner les difficultés, en élaguer les éléments périphériques, y apporter des solutions argumentées, fondées sur des recherches exhaustives et pertinentes, livrées dans une synthèse claire sous-tendue par un raisonnement juridique cohérent et crédible.

2.2. Utiliser efficacement tous types de recueils législatifs, quel qu'en soit le support, aux fins d'y trouver la norme applicable à une situation donnée, même si le contenu de cette norme n'a pas (encore) fait l'objet d'un enseignement spécifique.

2.3. Etre capable de passer de l'abstraction de la règle de droit aux faits concrets, et inversement.

3. COMMUNIQUER

Communiquer de manière claire, précise et structurée le fruit d'une recherche et le résultat d'une analyse juridiques, dans le respect le plus absolu des règles gouvernant la production scientifique.

3.1. Exprimer à haute voix, de manière vivante et structurée le contenu d'un savoir, le fruit d'une recherche ou le résultat d'une analyse juridique dans un français clair et précis dont le registre est adapté au contexte et aux qualités des interlocuteurs [exposé, entretien, conversation, plaidoyer, etc.] et être capable d'en faire de même par écrit, dans le respect de l'échéance assignée.

3.2. Développer, oralement et par écrit, une synthèse structurée d'une idée, d'une institution, d'une règle, d'une analyse, d'une thèse, d'une controverse juridique et pouvoir étayer son sujet d'illustrations pertinentes.

3.3. Participer à une conversation courante de difficulté moyenne dans une autre langue que le français (néerlandais ou anglais).

3.4. Subordonner toute forme de communication personnelle au respect le plus absolu des règles gouvernant la production scientifique (citations littérales, références, bibliographie, etc.).

4. S'OUVRIR

S'ouvrir aux autres, aux autres sciences humaines, aux relations qu'elles entretiennent avec le droit et, le cas échéant, à d'autres cultures juridiques ou au monde professionnel.

4.1. Travailler en équipe avec convivialité et efficacité, et dans le respect du débat contradictoire, pour mener une recherche ou une discussion collective, dont le résultat engage solidairement tous les membres du groupe.

4.2. Connaître et comprendre les concepts et théories issus d'autres sciences humaines (notamment l'économie politique, la philosophie, la psychologie, la sociologie, l'histoire et l'éthique) afin d'appréhender le rôle, la portée et les limites du droit et de la justice.

4.3. Faire fructifier l'ouverture intellectuelle résultant :

- soit de l'acquisition de connaissances approfondies en droit et de connaissances d'initiation dans d'autres sciences humaines ;
- soit de l'acquisition de connaissances d'initiation dans d'autres sciences humaines.

Le cas échéant, faire fructifier l'ouverture professionnelle résultant d'un stage de la pratique juridique, ainsi que la capacité acquise à cette occasion de replacer dans leurs contextes les normes, les institutions et les personnes appelées à les appliquer.

5. S'INTERROGER, S'IMPLIQUER ET S'ORGANISER

S'interroger sur les choix que véhiculent les normes, s'impliquer dans la promotion des valeurs fondatrices du droit et s'organiser dans son travail.

5.1. Comprendre le caractère relatif, dans le temps et dans l'espace, d'une solution juridique, et ainsi s'interroger sur la pertinence des choix qu'elle véhicule.

5.2. Identifier et promouvoir les valeurs éthiques et sociales fondatrices du droit et de la justice, ainsi que se garder de toute forme d'instrumentalisation.

5.3. S'organiser, planifier son travail et respecter les délais.1.5. Avoir une connaissance actuelle et une maîtrise générale des principes, règles, théories, doctrines et jurisprudences donnant corps aux différentes branches du droit, en particulier le droit constitutionnel, le droit des obligations, le droit pénal, le droit de la procédure pénale, le droit de l'Union européenne, le droit de la personne et de la famille, le droit social, le droit commercial, le droit des contrats, le droit administratif, les droits réels et intellectuels et le droit judiciaire.

6. S'OUVRIR

S'ouvrir aux autres, aux autres sciences humaines, aux relations qu'elles entretiennent avec le droit et, le cas échéant, à d'autres cultures juridiques ou au monde professionnel.

6.1. Travailler en équipe avec convivialité et efficacité, et dans le respect du débat contradictoire, pour mener une recherche ou une discussion collective, dont le résultat engage solidairement tous les membres du groupe.

6.2. Connaître et comprendre les concepts et théories issus d'autres sciences humaines (notamment l'économie politique, la philosophie, la psychologie, la sociologie, l'histoire et l'éthique) afin d'appréhender le rôle, la portée et les limites du droit et de la justice.

6.3. Faire fructifier l'ouverture intellectuelle résultant de connaissances approfondies en droit ou de connaissances d'initiation dans d'autres sciences humaines, ou encore d'un stage de la pratique juridique selon son choix de mineure.

Programme structure

The programme consists of a major in Law worth 150 credits. The major contains three different categories of courses in terms of course content : a number of courses in the Humanities (Philosophy, Economics, History, Sociology, Psychology) ; courses in foreign languages (a choice of two languages from among Dutch, English, German or Spanish), and legal terminology (in Dutch, English or German) and thirdly, courses in Law, namely two courses on Theoretical and Critical Reflection in Law and several courses in legal subjects (essentially Belgian and European Law). Apart from the language courses, which have their own special methodology, almost all of the sessions include a progressive combination of practical exercises, tutorials and supervised pieces of work.

The first year comprises courses in the Humanities, two language courses and three courses in Law (Sources, Principles and Methods, Roman ; Foundations in Law ; and Legal History). The opening of the 1st quadrimester to subjects other than those related to law, takes the form of three courses in the Humanities (Philosophy, History and Economics). Other subjects included in the Humanities feature on the programme in the following years (Sociology, Psychology, etc.).

⚙ Minor or additional module (30 credits)

Les étudiant·e·s inscrit·e·s à ce programme particulier devront obligatoirement choisir la Mineure en études néerlandaises et suivre les cours suivants :

En bloc 2: le LGERM1133, le LGERM 1535 ou le GERM 1335 (car organisés un an sur deux) et le LGERM1136 (niveau de base) ou LGERM1337 (niveau avancé) en fonction des résultats du test de la rentrée. En bloc 3, le LGERM1337D si l'étudiant·e avait suivi le LGERM1136 ou bien le LGERM1503A si l'étudiant·e avait suivi le LGERM1337.

List of available minors

For the remaining 30 credits, the students may choose either one of the minors offered by the School of Criminology, or by another UCLouvain faculty (Philosophy, Economics, Management, etc.), or a programme of more in-depth legal studies. The latter consists of three compulsory courses which include a session on legal terminology in a third language and a course on Comparative Law in a language other than French. Added to these are three optional courses, including an interactive course for which a more active involvment of the student is required. The student may also replace one of the courses by an internship in a legal profession.

Course prerequisites

The table below lists the activities (course units, or CUs) for which there are one or more prerequisites within the programme, i.e. the programme CU for which the learning outcomes must be certified and the corresponding credits awarded by the jury before registering for that CU.

These activities are also identified in the detailed programme: their title is followed by a yellow square.

Prerequisites and student's annual programme

As the prerequisite is for CU registration puposes only, there are no prerequisites within a programme year. Prerequisites are defined between CUs of different years and therefore influence the order in which the student will be able to register for the programme's CUs.

In addition, when the jury validates a student's individual programme at the beginning of the year, it ensures its coherence, meaning that it may:

- require the student to combine registration in two separate CUs which it considers necessary from a pedagogical point of view.
- transform a prerequisite into a corequisite if the student is in the final year of a degree course.

For more information, please consult the Academic Regulations and Procedures (https://uclouvain.be/fr/decouvrir/rgee.html).

The programme's courses and learning outcomes

For each UCLouvain training programme, a reference framework of learning outcomes specifies the the skills expected of every graduate on completion of the programme. Course unit descriptions specify targeted learning outcomes, as well as the unit's contribution to reference framework of learning outcomes.

Access Requirements

Decree of 7 November 2013 defining the landscape of higher education and the academic organization of studies.
The admission requirements must be met prior to enrolment in the University.

In the event of the divergence between the different linguistic versions of the present conditions, the French version shall prevail.

SUMMARY

- General access requirements
- Specific access requirements
- Access based on validation of professional experience
- Special requirements to access some programmes

General access requirements

Except as otherwise provided by other specific legal provisions, admission to undergraduate courses leading to the award of a Bachelor's degree will be granted to students with one of the following qualifications :

1. A Certificate of Upper Secondary Education issued during or after the 1993-1994 academic year by an establishment offering full-time secondary education or an adult education centre in the French Community of Belgium and, as the case may be, approved if it was issued by an educational institution before 1 January 2008 or affixed with the seal of the French Community if it was issued after this date, or an equivalent certificate awarded by the Examination Board of the French Community during or after 1994;

2. A Certificate of Upper Secondary Education issued no later than the end of the 1992-1993 academic year, along with official documentation attesting to the student's ability to pursue higher education for students applying for a full-length undergraduate degree programme;

3. A diploma awarded by a higher education institution within the French Community that confers an academic degree issued under the above-mentioned Decree, or a diploma awarded by a university or institution dispensing full-time higher education in accordance with earlier legislation;

4. A higher education certificate or diploma awarded by an adult education centre;

5. A pass certificate for one of the entrance examinations (https://uclouvain.be/fr/etudier/inscriptions/examens-admission.html) organized by higher education institutions or by an examination board of the French Community; this document gives admission to studies in the sectors, fields or programmes indicated therein;

6. A diploma, certificate of studies or other qualification similar to those mentioned above, issued by the Flemish Community of Belgium, the German Community of Belgium or the Royal Military Academy;

7. A diploma, certificate of studies or other qualification obtained abroad and deemed equivalent to the first four mentioned above by virtue of a law, decree, European directive or international convention;

Note:

Requests for equivalence must be submitted to the Equivalence department (Service des équivalences) of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research of the French Community of Belgium in compliance with the official deadline.

The following two qualifications are automatically deemed equivalent to the Certificate of Upper Secondary Education (Certificat d'enseignement secondaire supérieur – CESS):

- European Baccalaureate issued by the Board of Governors of a European School,
- International Baccalaureate issued by the International Baccalaureate Office in Geneva.

8. Official documentation attesting to a student's ability to pursue higher education (diplôme d'aptitude à accéder à l'enseignement supérieur - DAES), issued by the Examination Board of the French Community.

Specific access requirements

- Access to bachelor programmes for candidates of nationality outside the European Union who are not assimilated to Belgian nationals is subject to the following criteria:

  - not have obtained a secondary education diploma for more than 3 years maximum. Example: for an admission application for the academic year 2023-2024, you must have obtained your diploma during the academic years 2020-2021, 2021-2022 ou 2022-2023. In the French Community of Belgium, the academic year runs from September 14 to September 13
  - not already hold an undergraduate degree

- Candidates, whatever their nationality, with a secondary school diploma from a country outside the European Union, must have obtained an average of 13/20 minimum or, failing that, have obtained this average, have passed one year of study in Belgium (for example special Maths / sciences). A non-successful year will not be taken into consideration.

- For any secondary school diploma from a European Union country, the admission request must contain the equivalence of your diploma or, at the very least, proof of the filing of the equivalence request with the Wallonia-Brussels Federation (French Community of Belgium). For any information relating to obtaining an equivalence, please refer to the following site.
- For any secondary school diploma from a country outside the European Union, the admission application must contain the equivalence of your diploma issued by the Wallonia-Brussels Federation (French Community of Belgium). If you have a restrictive equivalence for the programme of your choice, in addition of it, you must have either the DAES or a certificate of successful completion of the examination giving access to 1st cycle studies when you submit your application

Admission to undergraduate studies on the basis of accreditation of knowledge and skills obtained through professional or personal experience (Accreditation of Prior Experience)

Subject to the general requirements laid down by the authorities of the higher education institution, with the aim of admission to the undergraduate programme, the examination boards accredit the knowledge and skills that students have obtained through their professional or personal experience.

This experience must correspond to at least five years of documented activity, with years spent in higher education being partially taken into account: 60 credits are deemed equivalent to one year of experience, with a maximum of two years being counted. At the end of an assessment procedure organized by the authorities of the higher education institution, the Examination Board will decide whether a student has sufficient skills and knowledge to successfully pursue undergraduate studies.

After this assessment, the Examination Board will determine the additional courses and possible exemptions constituting the supplementary requirements for the student's admission.

Special requirements to access some programmes

- Admission to undergraduate studies in engineering: civil engineering and architect

  Pass certificate for the special entrance examination for undergraduate studies in engineering: civil engineering and architect (https://uclouvain.be/fr/facultes/epl/examenadmission.html).

  Admission to these courses is always subject to students passing the special entrance examination. Contact the faculty office for the programme content and the examination arrangements.
- Admission to undergraduate studies in veterinary medicine

  Admission to undergraduate studies in veterinary medicine is governed by the Decree of 16 June 2006 regulating the number of students in certain higher education undergraduate courses (non-residents) (https://uclouvain.be/en/study/inscriptions/etudes-contingentees.html).
- Admission to undergraduate studies in physiotherapy and rehabilitation

- Admission to undergraduate studies in psychology and education: speech and language therapy

  Admission to undergraduate studies in psychology and education: speech and language therapy is governed by the Decree of 16 June 2006 regulating the number of students in certain higher education undergraduate courses (non-residents) (https://uclouvain.be/en/study/inscriptions/etudes-contingentees.html).
- Admission to undergraduate studies in medicine and dental science

  Admission to undergraduate studies in medecine and dental science is governed by the Decree of 16 June 2006 regulating the number of students in certain higher education undergraduate courses (non-residents). (https://uclouvain.be/en/study/inscriptions/etudes-contingentees.html)

  Note: students wishing to enrol for a Bachelor's degree in Medicine or a Bachelor's degree in dental science must first sit an aptitude test (fr) (https://uclouvain.be/en/study/inscriptions/etudes-contingentees.html).

Teaching method

Etudier le droit ne se limite pas à l'apprentissage de textes techniques. L'apprentissage du droit vise aussi à développer une méthode permettant d'identifier les règles applicables, de les situer dans leur contexte et d'en tirer les enseignements requis.

Le programme de bachelier en droit forme progressivement aux méthodes et aux raisonnements essentiels de la science du droit; il offre une ouverture sur les disciplines dont le droit se nourrit.

Les compétences à acquérir tout au long du programme sont de trois ordres:

- se forger des outils pour apprendre à apprendre;
- se constituer un appareillage conceptuel permettant de développer une analyse critique du droit;
- développer un ensemble d'informations juridiques permettant de développer des compétences spécifiques.

Apprendre à pratiquer le droit

Les monitorats, exercices pratiques et travaux dirigés complètent l'acquisition des connaissances transmises lors des cours magistraux et permettent de confronter, en petit groupe, le caractère général et abstrait de la règle de droit à des situations concrètes.

Lors des exercices pratiques, les étudiants participent à des procès fictifs, rédigent des actes de procédure, travaillent à résoudre des cas réels, analysent divers documents etc.

Le travail écrit que les étudiants réalisent dans le cadre des travaux dirigés leur apprend à formuler une question de droit (par exemple, le téléchargement au regard des droits d'auteurs, l'audition des témoins et le faux témoignage en justice ou encore le droit d'asile en Belgique), à la résoudre en menant des recherches documentaires et à formuler leurs résultats de manière appropriée.

Les étudiants qui choisissent l'approfondissement en droit auront également l'occasion de réaliser un stage en milieu professionnel.

Evaluation

The evaluation methods comply with the regulations concerning studies and exams (https://uclouvain.be/fr/decouvrir/ rgee.html). More detailed explanation of the modalities specific to each learning unit are available on their description sheets under the heading "Learning outcomes evaluation method".

The interactive course leads to an ongoing evaluation. In the other courses, there is a balance between written and oral exams.

Mobility and/or Internationalisation outlook

Les programmes d'échange sont organisés au niveau du Master en droit. Ils se déroulent durant la deuxième année du Master.

Les étudiants internationaux qui souhaiteraient s'inscrire dans le programme de bachelier en droit sont invités à soumettre un dossier. Chaque dossier fait l'objet d'un examen individuel.

En dépit de l'influence de plus en plus importante du droit européen et du droit international, la discipline juridique reste marquée par l'idée de souveraineté sur un territoire et sur une collectivité nationale.

Les éléments d'internationalisation du programme résultent principalement de la présence du cours de droit européen dans la majeure. Ils se manifestent aussi dans la présence d'un cours optionnel de droit comparé, enseigné en une autre langue que le français, et d'autres cours optionnels visant à introduire à la relativité des systèmes juridiques.

Les échanges internationaux resteront, quant à eux, organisés au niveau du master en droit.

Possible trainings at the end of the programme

Positioning of the programme within the University cursus

The basic study programme in Law is divided into two cycles : the three year bachelor's programme and the two year master's programme. The complete university cursus therefore takes five years. The bachelor's programme aims not only to provide the student with the foundations in the subject, but also to develop those tranversal capacities proper to university education, namely working autonomously, developing a critical mind and acquiring the capacity to understand and conduct research related to the chosen domain of knowledge within the context of the Humanities in which it is situated.

The master's programme, aimed at the improvement of knowledge and at specialisation, helps the student to gain a mastery of the knowledge of the subject, as well as the skills and expertise needed for practising a law - related profession, teaching, or conducting research. The basic course may be completed, if necessary, by a complementary one-year master's programme, of 60 credits

Other studies accessible upon completion of the programme

The bachelor's degree in Law gives access to the Master in Laws which offers a wide variety of career possibilities. Many graduates in law become solicitors or barristers, or will be magistrates. But the skills of a jurist are also equally recognised in the world of business or in national and international public service. Jurists play an important and valuable role as companies find themselves more and more confronted with ever-increasingly complex and changing legislation which applies to industrial, operational and financial operations, without overlooking more recent domains such as protection of the environment, or consumer law. At every level, public administrations call upon jurists : in federal, regional, local, provincial and local administration, as well as in economic, social and cultural public services and youth protection etc.

Certain masters will be accessible to those students with a Bachelor's diploma in Law provided they have completed a minor in the subject in question and on condition they fulfil any necessary prerequisites.

The relevant information is provided on the description lists of the minors.
