

Conference on Technological Change

Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium, April 29 2024

Tentative Conference Program (per paper: presentations 35min, general discussion 10 min)

- 8.30-9.00 some coffee
- 9.00 – 10.30 Session on Schooling and Worker Organization to Deal with Technological Change
 - 9.00 – 9.45 “Organized Labor vs. Robots? Evidence from German Micro Data”, Oliver Schlenker
 - 9.45 – 10.30 “Keeping Up with the Computers: How Vocational Training Responds to New Technology”, Ulrich Zierahn-Weilage
- 10.30-11.00 coffee break
- 11.00 -12.30 Session on Effects of Subsidies for Technology and Employment
 - 11.00 – 11.45 “Future versus Today’s Improvements: the Trade-off of Place-based Policies”, Max Bres
 - 11.45 – 12.30 “New Evidence on Technology Subsidies, Employment and Skills”, Joonas Tuhkuri
- 12.30-1.30 lunch
- 1.30-3.00 Session on Changing Occupational Employment
 - 1.30 – 2.15 “Aggregate labor share and firm-level automation”, Zsofia Barany
 - 2.15 – 3.00 “Leading Firms and the Future of Work”, Fabrizio Colella
- 3.00-3.30 coffee
- 3.30-5.00 Session on Forms of Technological Change
 - 3.30 – 4.15 “Quantity-biased technological change”, Cristina LaFuente
 - 4.15 – 5.00 “Capital Embodied Structural Change”, Elisa Keller
- 5.00-5.30 coffee
- 5.30-6.30 Keynote, Pascual Restrepo
- 7.00-7.30 drinks (all are invited)
- 7.30 dinner (only for speakers and those who explicitly registered)

Venue: The conference will be held at the Martin’s Hotel in Louvain-la-Neuve (the entrance will be the one of the hotel (not the restaurant) at Rue de l’Hocaille 1-3 B-1348 Louvain-la-Neuve). Attendees have to pre-register.

Remote participation: This conference can be viewed on zoom under <https://cornell.zoom.us/j/96147870801?pwd=aGhocUMvSHRodlRjOS9nMkJ4YVhEQT09> . If you pre-registered as coming in person, we have reserved a space for you, and very much hope you will indeed participate in person.

Acknowledgements: The conference is organized by Philipp Kircher in collaboration with Christina Lafuente and Nancy Guillaume, and is held in collaboration with the University of Louvain. It is generously supported by the European Research Council grant #818859 that Kircher gratefully acknowledges.