

Faculté de médecine

MD

DENT2432 Oral and maxillofacial clinic, part 2

[140h+15h exercises] 7 credits

Teacher(s): Pierre Mahy, Hervé Reychler, Michel Thone
Language: french
Level: 2nd cycle course

Aims

At the end of this clinical period the student has :

- to be able to obtain anamnesis of patients (children inclusive) presenting all kinds of oral and maxillofacial diseases.
- to be able to examine these patients, to synthesise clinical, nosological and radiological elements
- to be able to discuss the diagnosis and discuss the necessity of complementary investigations in the most frequent oral and maxillofacial diseases
- to propose a symptomatic treatment if indicated
- to treat surgically the patients who require oral surgery

Main themes

- oral mucosa diseases
- maxillary and mandibular osseous diseases, inclusive OMF traumatology
- orofacial pain syndroms
- treatment of medically compromised patients
- dental extraction and oral surgery techniques

Content and teaching methods

- dental extractions, oral surgery, first with the help of a junior staff member , and progressively the student must become autnomic
- propedeutical lessons

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

Requirements :

- all theoretical teaching

Evaluation :

- Daily and Trimestrial evaluation (= 60 % of the final points)
- clinical oral exam at the end of the year (= 40% of the final points)

Support :

- all permanent and temporary staff members of the department of oral and maxillofacial surgery