FLTR1180 Français médiéval

[30h] 3 credits

This course is taught in the 1st and 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Claude Thiry
Language: french
Level: 1st cycle course

Aims

To introduce the students to the characteristics of Old and Middle French.

Main themes

A concrete introduction, based on historical texts. The texts will be chosen according to the needs of the students: chroniclers and archive documents from the Middle Ages, specially from the region corresponding to modern day Belgium (Wallonia, Picardy, Lorraine, and Champagne).

For the choice of texts, it is recommended that both the Romance language professor and the professors from the relevant disciplines (ARKE, HIST) be consulted.

Content and teaching methods

After an introduction to Old French (its morpho-syntactical principles), analysis of texts illustrating different historiographical styles from the 13th to the 15th century, providing an overview of their linguistic diversity and historical approaches.
