

SC

GEOG2141 Géographie humaine et économique

[75h+75h exercises] 12 credits

Teacher(s): Marie-Laurence De Keersmaecker, Dominique Peeters, Mark Rounsevell, Isabelle Thomas
Language: french
Level: 2nd cycle course

Aims

To understand the formation, organisation and evolution of economical regions.

Main themes

Specifications :

Geographical space and its representations: places, networks, distances; - Weberian approach to industrial localisation : geographical organization of production, impact of network morphology, - The geographical systems of price and price formation in space - the spatial monopol, the competition "Hotelling", spatial balance (Takayama and Judge); - public services: spatial public service, - Spatial interaction: gravitary and entropic models, - Urban systems : models of Christaller-Lösch; - The region: concept, theory of the economic basis, tables of industrial exchange, regional dynamics, - The relations between regions: regional point, shift-and-share analysis, inter-regionnal exchanges, inter-regionnal disparity, center-periphery relations (Krugman), - Urban and regional planification.

Other credits in programs

GEOG21	Première licence en sciences géographiques	(12.5 credits)	Mandatory
---------------	--	----------------	-----------