[30h] 4 credits

This two-yearly course is taught in 2004-2005, 2006-2007,...

This course is taught in the 1st and 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Anne Tihon
Language: french
Level: 2nd cycle course

Aims

The aim of the course is to present the administrative system of the byzantine empire from the 4th to 15th century, by examining those roman, greek and oriental aspect which characterise the byzantine empire.

Main themes

The course consists of a presentation of all the important sectors of byzantine administration : the emperor and his powers, the important centralised services, the administration of territories, the army, the justice, the finance and the taxation, and so on. Certain particular themes will be developed, based principally on extracts from greek and latin translations. The course complements that of Byzantine History.
