Seminar on social and political philosophy

[30h] 4 credits

Teacher(s): Marc Maesschalck, Philippe Van Parijs
Language: french
Level: 3rd cycle course

Aims

By the end of the seminar, students should be able to write an essay demonstrating a capacity for personal, rigorous, and critical argument against the background of related readings.

Main themes

The seminar aims to give DEA and doctoral students the opportunity to actively participate in the discussions surrounding current research and to submit their own work to positive and rigorous criticism. The seminar deals with epistemological questions in politics and normative theory as well as questions in social and economic ethics conducted in parallel
 (a) by Marc Maesschalck in the framework of the Centre for Philosophy of Law ("Political Epistemology and Normative Theory"), and
 (b) by Philippe Van Parijs in the framework of the Hoover Chair ("Questions in Social and Economic Ethics").

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

Assessment :

Students are required to hand in an essay.

Supporting material :

For part (a): as well as the seminar meetings proper, pedagogical support and tutorials are offered to DEA students.
