ROM2442 French literature outside France and Belgium

[30h] 3 credits

This two-yearly course is taught in 2005-2006, 2007-2008,...

This course is taught in the 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Georges Jacques
Language: french
Level: 2nd cycle course

Aims

The student has to know who the important writers of this literature are, but must also be able to situate them in the global area of the French-speaking countries.

Main themes

The notion of French-speaking countries is the subject of a critical reflection. This reflection is to be applied on both the relation with the French language and on the periodisation (each considered literature is specifically linked to the chronological line).

Content and teaching methods

The course gives an overview of literature in French of Switzerland, Canada, Africa and the West Indies. It also contains some isolated authors that are part of the literature in French, in spite of their foreign origin. Great attention is paid to the regionalism issues.

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)
