ROM2505 Histoire de la littérature espagnole II

[30h] 3.5 credits

This two-yearly course is taught in 2004-2005, 2006-2007,...

This course is taught in the 1st and 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Geneviève Fabry

Language:

Level: 2nd cycle course

Aims

At the end of the course, the student should have:

- a global and historic knowledge of the literature production in Spain of the XX century. She/He should be able to place the most important works in their historical and literary context and should also be able to interpretate these works on the basis of a literary comprehension and in a intertextual perspective.

Main themes

The course presents the main Spanish literary genres and movements of the XX century, while focussing on the major works.

Content and teaching methods

The master courses will alternate with analysis of extracts of works (the students will have an anthology, as from the first course session) or complete works, so as to present a complete overview -with focusses on some major works - of the Spanish literature of the XX century

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)
