

TECO*THEO3940 Seminar : Special Dogmatics

[30h] 2.5 credits

Teacher(s): Benoît Bourguine
Language: french
Level: 3rd cycle course

Main themes

The seminar is based on the active participation of students by means of a personal work, presented in the form of an exposé, and by exchanges of views during debates.

Content and teaching methods

The seminar's theme this year will focus on the limits and advantages of a narrative christology. After having presented the problematic of narrative theology, our collective research will be particularly oriented towards the christological field. We will take the occasion to examine significant examples of narrative christology, asking as much about their relationship to foundational accounts as to the speculative language of dogmatics.
