GERM2311 English as a foreign language (EFL) methodology

[15h+15h exercises] 4 credits

Teacher(s): Fanny Meunier
Language: English
Level: Second cycle

Aims

The students should acquire the knowledge, the skills and know-how as well as the existential competence necessary to teach English as a foreign language.

Main themes

1. The goals and objectives of the teaching of English as a foreign language.
 2. The description and illustration of approaches, aids and teaching/learning techniques in the field of English as a foreign language.
 3. The conception and critical discussion of teaching/learning sequences (including formative and summative testing).
- The first part (15 periods) consists in lectures, while the seminar part will take the form of workshops in which the students present lessons which are analyzed and discussed in connection with their teaching practice.
