

Faculty of Medicine

MEGE3040 Logistic organization of a general practice

[16h]

Teacher(s): Dominique Pestiaux, Charles Vanwelde
Language: French
Level: Third cycle

Aims

Introduction to the practice of a general practice, covering the following items: - installation and organization of a home practice, a group practice, a regional framework - assuming continuity of care - legal aspects, social and legal responsibility - application and developing of criteria of quality assurance in general practice - how to develop a personal research and continuous personal medical training.

Main themes

- introduction to the accompanied practice, the European standard - installation and practical organization of a home practice, a group practice or a regional framework,- organization of the continuity of care, contribution of data processing to the practice of the general medicine - implementing new medical diagnosis and care tools in general medicine - legal responsibility and legal documents (certificates) - application of criteria of quality assurance in general medicine; implementation of guidelines and standards of quality in his practice.

Content and teaching methods

Development of a virtual project of medical practice, by working groups limited to 5 or 6 participants, privileging the meeting of experts chosen according to the problems met.

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

Oral presentation and peer-discussion of the elaborate projects of medical practice at the end of the course curriculum.

Other appropriations of the activity in the programs MED24/MG

Fourth year of the program leading to the rank of doctor of medicine (General medicine)

Programmes in which this activity is taught

MEGE3DS

Other credits in programs

MED24/MG Quatrième année du programme conduisant au grade de docteur en médecine (Médecine générale)