Open Faculty of Economic and Social Politics

OPES2181   Methods and techniques of data processing

[15h] 2 credits

Teacher(s):	Luc Albarello, Pierre de Saint-Georges, Françoise Digneffe, Ginette Herman, Jean-Pierre Hiernaux, Réginald Savage
Language:	French
Level:	Second cycle

Aims

At the end of this course, the students will be able to acquire a data processing method and to use a suitable technique to this end that it is quantitative or qualitative.
One will also take care that the students can hold account of the limits of validity and the conditions of relevance.

Main themes

This course is presented in the form of 6 modules independent devoted to a technique of processing data to knowing: analyze catégorielle, analyzes biographical, analyzes structural, analyzes quantitative information, analyzes economic situation, and analyzes direct observations.