

Faculty of Arts and Letters

ROM2281 XVIth, XVIIth and XVIIIth century French authors

[30h] 3.5 credits

This two-yearly course is taught in 2006-2007, 2008-2009,...

Teacher(s): Georges Jacques
Language: French
Level: Second cycle

Aims

Through text analysis, have the students discover the relevance of the different investigation methods, modern and traditional ones, so as to prepare them to academic research as well as to the teaching of literature in secondary education schools.

Main themes

Analysis of a literary work written in French (or of several works of the same genre) from the period between 1500 and 1800 and allowing us to initiate the student to the historical, sociological, psychocritical and structuralistic, etc... methods.

Content and teaching methods

Analysis of a literary work written in French (or of several works of the same genre) from the period between 1500 and 1800 and allowing us to initiate the student to the historical, sociological, psychocritical and structuralistic, etc... methods.

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

Written exam.

Programmes in which this activity is taught

LITT9CE Certificat universitaire en littérature

Other credits in programs

ROM21	Première licence en langues et littératures romanes	(3.5 credits)
ROM22	Deuxième licence en langues et littératures romanes	(3.5 credits)