ROM2462 Contrastive and corrective French phonetics

[15h+15h exercises] 2.5 credits

This course is taught in the 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Silvia Lucchini
Language: French
Level: Second cycle

Aims

At the end of the course, the future teachers of French as a foreign language will be able to understand the phonetic and phonological difficulties experienced by non-francophones in mastering present-day Standard French and to suggest solutions to these difficulties.

Main themes

Topics:

- the phonetic and phonological systems of present-day Standard French;
- principal difficulties with pronunciation in present-day Standard French;
- the phonetic and phonological systems of several modern languages (Spanish, Arabic, Italian, English, German, Vietnamese, etc.);
- difficulties experienced by non-francophones in mastering French;
- suggested solutions.

Content and teaching methods

This course is intended for future teachers of French as a foreign language. It examines the difficulties faced by non-francophone students in mastering the phonetic and phonological system of present-day Standard French. In the practical part of the course (15 hours of exercises), students collect and analyse recordings of non-Frenchspeakers from different countries. They must also develop a programme designed to cope with the difficulties identified.
