

Faculty of Psychology and Education Sciences

SEX2260 Interdisciplinary seminar on family and sexuality studies

[15h] 4.5 credits

Teacher(s): Eric Baruffol
Language: French
Level: Second cycle

Aims

- to sensitize the students to the pluridisciplinary aspects of the familial, conjugal and sexual realities and to the complexity of these realities.

Main themes

Seminar with various themes chosen in the social and cultural current events about family, couple and sexuality. The chosen themes will be studied through the late scientific papers from different fields in human sciences.

Content and teaching methods

The students will have to identify relevant publications, to synthesize the data of the literature and to report, in a written or oral form, the results of their research in the frame of the seminar.

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

To be trained to the use of scientific database

Evaluation : continued evaluation and based on a written report on the literature analysed

Support : references on the chosen themes

Programmes in which this activity is taught

SEX1EP Année de formation préparatoire à la licence en sciences de la famille et de la sexualité