

Faculty of Theology

SREL2010 History of the Jewish Religion

[30h] 2.5 credits

This course is not taught in 2005-2006

Language: French

Level: Second cycle

Aims

This seminar is an introduction to the history and religious thought of Judaism, from the Middle Ages to the present. The course emphasises the diversity of currents, their sources and their specific contributions.

Main themes

Without ignoring the presence of Jewish communities in the East and in North Africa, special account is taken of interactions between the Jewish world and Western society, Christians and laypeople. Using an historical itinerary, the contribution of Judaism to European civilization and thought is demonstrated.

Programmes in which this activity is taught

SREL9CE Certificat universitaire en sciences des religions