SREL2020 Lay Humanisms

[30h] 2.5 credits

This course is not taught in 2005-2006

This course is taught in the 2nd semester

Language: French

Level: Second cycle

Aims

This course provides an introduction to the history and thought of lay humanisms. The course accentuates the diversity of currents, their sources and their specific contributions.

Main themes

The formation and development of lay humanisms is developed in the context of Western societies, showing their interaction with the religions that have marked those societies (essentially Judaism and Christianity). Through an historical itinerary, the course shows the contribution these lay humanisms make to society today.
