THEO3130 Special Dogmatic Theology

[30h] 3 credits

Teacher(s): Benoît Bourguine
Language: French
Level: Third cycle

Aims

Special Dogmatic Theology

This course aims to show the exigencies of theological research, deepening a particular question of dogmatic theology.

Main themes

This lecture type course offers original research on a question of special dogmatics.

Content and teaching methods

This year's theme will focus on the relationship between a hidden God and a revealed God, linked to the problem of the relationship between an economic Trinity and an immanent Trinity. After having presented the problematic, the journey will begin with a confrontation between Luther's 'theologia crucis' and Barth's dialectical theology, in considering their respective theological environments. We will measure the repercussions of advancing the humanity of God on the trinitarian doctrine, before widening the perspective to quite other theological horizons.
