THEO3950 Seminar on Moral Theology

[30h]

This course is taught in the 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Eric Gaziaux, Henri Wattiaux
Language: French
Level: Third cycle

Aims

Seminar on Moral Theology

The objectives are:

- (1) To intensify personal work and research in the field of moral theology;
- (2) To learn scientific communication (oral and written).

Main themes

To meet these objectives, the seminar proposes to study a specific theme of moral theology or a specific author according to a defined line of action. Depending on the year, the question examined in the seminar could already have been studied during the course.

Content and teaching methods

Content: varies from year to year

Method: On the basis of documentation and personal research, the student is asked to make an oral and written presentation. This presentation is followed by an exchange of views. At the end of the seminar, the student is asked to submit a written summary of the work done, in the form of a critical review.

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

Evaluation: The evaluation takes into account active participation in the seminar, written and oral presentation, as well as the final summary.

Resources: Major works are made available to students at the Libraries of Theology and Philosophy. A reading package is distributed to the students.
