- Upper B1 level of the "Common European Framework for Languages".

Main themes

Code

Enabling students to adequately master language functions, grammatical structures (simple and complex), vocabulary (general and specific), pronunciation and intonation in order to allow for fluent and spontaneous communication.

Culture

Making students aware of the (inter-)cultural differences as expressed by different interlocutors of the English language (native and non-native speakers).

PEDAGOGICAL APPROACH

Students will take part in activities which will allow them to use and develop their communication skills and mastery of the language (principally speaking skills) in situations such as:

- Socialising
- Organisation of a trip/stay abroad
- Presentation of a project, a product, a company
- Participation in (leading of) a group project, a meeting
- Negotiations, exchanging of ideas, building up an argument
- Telephoning
- Job interviews (including the writing of a CV and application letter)
- Writing e-mails

Students will be given a host of language aids (communication techniques, language functions, general and specialized vocabulary, grammatical points) and resources (written documents, audiovisual supports, internet sites) before each activity thus enabling them to participate fully in each interactive communication situation. Feedback and remedial sessions will also be provided. Detailed instructions concerning each activity will be given in advance.
