

Faculty of Arts and Letters

GLOR2833 Sanskrit (advanced level)

[45h] 9 credits

Teacher(s): Christophe Vielle, Christophe Vielle
Language: French
Level: Second cycle

Aims

Improving in Sanskrit language and philology.

Main themes

The lectures are devoted to the commented reading of texts from the epics and purānas, the classical poetry (kāvya) or the narrative literature. To the commentaries on the language, the literary expressing and the cultural context, is added a philological training in the editorial problems, including the reading of manuscripts and early scholia. The hebdomadary work of the student is to begin with the transliteration of the texts in devanāgarī. Besides the lectures, each student prepares by himself a peculiar text, chosen according to his interest and his level of learning.
