

GREC1100 Greek - Elementary level

[90h] 9 credits

This course is taught in the 1st and 2nd semester

Language: French

Level: First cycle

Aims

The courses are designed to provide the student with skills necessary for every-day communication (in both written and oral form) and to familiarize him with a solid foundation in the structure (grammar, syntax etc.) of the Greek language. The student should be in position to understand broadly a conversation or a simple text about common everyday matters, to communicate or exchange basic information and write short simple texts. The teaching of the grammar and the vocabulary corresponds to the linguistic proficiency of the first level (Beginners Greek 1-2)

Main themes

Comprehension and expression of spoken language (about common everyday matters)

Comprehension and expression of written language (with the acquired vocabulary and structure of the Greek language corresponding to the elementary level)

Content and teaching methods
