

Faculty of Arts and Letters

MUSI1502 History of Music

[22.5h] 3 credits

This course is taught in the 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Christophe Joseph Yv Pirenne
Language: French
Level: First cycle

Aims

This course is intended to extend students' knowledge of the history of Music from Antiquity up to the end of the 19th century. They will be trained to recognize the musical forms and major styles of this period. They will also be expected to know the major works of musical history up to the end of the 19th century.

Main themes

Key moments in musical history (excluding the 20th century) will be studied in detail, particularly through listening to the major works in the repertoire and analyzing the scores for their chief characteristics.

Content and teaching methods

The course divides up the history of Music along traditional chronological lines. It highlights those composers and works judged by the lecturer to be the most important. The course content may vary from one year to another.

Other credits in programs

GC23	Troisième année du programme conduisant au grade d'ingénieur civil des constructions	(3 credits)
-------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------