

Faculty of Theology

THEO1381 History of Christianity: Antiquity

[30h] 2 credits

This two-yearly course is taught in 2007-2008, 2009-2010,...

This course is taught in the 1st semester

Teacher(s): Jean-Marie Auwers
Language: French
Level: First cycle

Aims

History of Christianity: Antiquity

By the end of this course, the student should be able to:

- situate within the framework of general history a few outstanding events of Ancient Christianity;
- read historical sources critically and use the basic tools for the field.

Main themes

History of Christianity: Antiquity

By the end of this course, the student should be able to:

- situate within the framework of general history a few outstanding events of Ancient Christianity;
- read historical sources critically and use the basic tools for the field.

Content and teaching methods

A brief survey of the Roman Empire history will be followed by a detailed presentation of the Ancient Church history, period after period. The main historical sources are given in translation, according to a reading and exercises programme.

Other credits in programs

HIST13BA Troisième année de bachelier en histoire (3 credits)