THEO1382 History of Christianity: Modern Times

[30h] 2 credits

This two-yearly course is taught in 2006-2007, 2008-2009,...

This course is taught in the 1st semester

Teacher(s): Jean-Pierre Delville
Language: French
Level: First cycle

Aims

History of Christianity: Modern Times

By the end of this course, the student should be able to:

- situate the principal chronological markers of the history of Christianity in modern times;
- read historical sources with a critical spirit;
- make proper use of the working tools of the Medieval historian.

Main themes

To meet these objectives, the course studies the Protestant Reformation in its principal forms, from the Council of Trent, with consequences (Catholic Reform, Counter Reformation) that have left an indelible mark on Catholicism (urgings from Rome and certain religious orders, resistance to reform, spiritual dynamism, missionary expansion), but also State Catholicism (Spain - Portugal, France, Austria), the Jansenist controversy, anti-clericalism in the 18th century and the French Revolution from a religious angle.
