THEO3940 Dogmatic Theology Seminar

[30h] 2.5 credits

Teacher(s): Benoît Bourguine
Language: French
Level: Third cycle

Aims

Dogmatic Theology Seminar

The objective of this seminar is to give the students the opportunity to undertake individual and collective research into a topic in the dogmatic theology.

Main themes

The seminar is based on the active participation of students by means of personal work, presented in the form of an exposé, and by exchanges of views during debates.

Content and teaching methods

This year's theme focuses on the limits and advantages of a narrative Christology. After having presented the issue of narrative theology, the collective research is oriented towards the Christological field. Students are asked to examine significant examples of narrative Christology, which ask as much about their relationship to foundational accounts as about the speculative language of dogmatics.
