Main themes

Code

- Students should have full command of the functions of language, and of simple and complex grammatical structures, they should use a wide range of vocabulary (both general and specific).
- Pronunciation and intonation must not impede spontaneous and easy communication.
- Particular focus will be put on " classroom language ".

Methodology

- The students will take part in a variety of activities enabling them to practise and improve their communication skills and their command of the (mainly spoken) language.
- A few examples of situations or activities :
 - . debates and discussions
 - . role plays
 - . short lectures
 - . lessons taught
 - . self-study of grammar and vocabulary
 - . self study of "classroom language"
- Before each activity the students will receive a range of tools (communication techniques, language functions, general and specialised vocabulary, grammatical reminders, etc) and resources (written and audiovisual documents, web sites, etc), which will enable them to be fully efficient in the activities organised, provided they have taken the trouble to prepare those activities carefully.
- Feedback will be given and remedial exercises may be suggested.
- Clear, detailed instructions will be given to the students before each activity.
