

Faculty of Arts and Letters

ASI2301

Chair Chiang Ching-Kuo

[15h] 2 credits

This course is taught in the 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Robert Deliège, Paul Servais
Language: French
Level: Second cycle

Aims

This course will be mainly given by professors and specialists from Chinese origin. It will give an introduction of the Chinese civilisation, especially the elements that are the least available in the usual programs of the university. We will try to have different subjects each year.

Main themes

One or maximum two specific subjects will be presented during the 15 hour-course: the favourite topics are :

- the confrontation between the traditional civilisation and the modernity
- communication
- the comparison of the civilisation and science and techniques in china and Europe.

Content and teaching methods

The history of contemporary China and the Chinese migration waves.- cultural and tradition problems of the Overseas Chinese people. The overseas Chinese communities, comparison of a community of South-East Asia and of elsewhere.- the relationship between the Overseas Chinese and of Popular China : Investment, donations and cultural exchanges.

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

Prerequisite : none.

Other credits in programs

HORI22	Deuxième licence en langues et littératures orientales (philologie et histoire orientales)	(3 credits)
HORI2M1	Master en langues et littératures anciennes, orientation "orientales"	(3 credits)
HORI2M1/EO	Master en langues et littératures anciennes, orientation "orientales" (option Inde et Extrême-Orient)	(3 credits)
HORI2M1/IA	Master en langues et littératures anciennes, orientation "orientales" (option Islam et monde arabe)	(3 credits)
HORI2M1/OR	Master en langues et littératures anciennes, orientation "orientales" (option études orientales)	(3 credits)