CLIG2160 Sociolinguistics

[15h] 3.5 credits

This course is taught in the 1st semester

Teacher(s): Michel Francard
Language: French
Level: Second cycle

Aims

At the end of this course, the student will be able:

- 1.To understand the conceptual framework developed by sociolinguistics for the analysis of the relationship between the speaker, the language and the social group.
- 2.To understand the methods of contemporary sociolinguistics, while applying critical points of view.
- 3.To make use of both theoretical and methodological competences as acquired in concrete situations (namely field inquiries).

Main themes

This course is threefold :

- 1.The study of theoretical concepts : linguistic variation (language, dialect, "patois", etc.), languages in contact (bilingualism, diglossia, etc.), linguistic community, linguistic market (speakers and norms), linguistic utterances and speakers' representations.
- 2.The presentation of the technical skills required by the sociolinguistic inquiry (creating questionnaires, selecting samples, data processing, etc.).
- 3.The application of theoretical and methodological skills through field work.

Content and teaching methods

This course has three main objectives :

- 1.To give a conceptual framework for the analysis of the relationship between the speaker, the language and the social group.
- 2.To achieve a critical reflection on the methods of contemporary sociolinguistics.
- 3.To give support in applying theoretical concepts and methodology to concrete situations.

Summary

1. Study of theoretical concepts ; 2. Methodological and practical aspects of the sociolinguistic inquiry ; 3. Application of the methodology through field work.
