

Faculty of Medicine

DENT2431 Oral and maxillofacial clinic, part 1

[30h] 3 credits

Teacher(s): Pierre Mahy, Hervé Reychler, Michel Thone
Language: French
Level: Second cycle

Aims

At the end of this clinical period preparing the student to the second clinical year, the student must be introduced to following :

- to be able to obtain anamnesis of patients (children inclusive) presenting all kinds of oral and maxillofacial diseases.
- to be able to exam these patients, to synthetise clinical, nosological and radiological elements
- to be able to discuss the diagnosis and discuss the necessity of complementary investigations in the most frequent oral and maxillofacial diseases
- to propose a symptomatic treatment if indicated
- to treat surgically the patients who require oral surgery

Main themes

- oral mucosa diseases
- maxillary and mandibular osseous diseases, inclusive OMF traumatology
- orofacial pain syndroms
- treatment of medically compromised patients
- dental extraction and oral surgery techniques

Content and teaching methods

- dental extractions, oral surgery, first with the help of a junior staff member , and progressively the student must become autnomic
- propedeutical lessons

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

Requirements:

- all theoretical teaching

Evaluation :

- Daily and Trimestrial evaluation

Support :

- all permanent and temporary staff members of the department of oral and maxillofacial surgery