GERM2911 German as a foreign language (GFL) seminar : cultural aspects

[15h] 4 credits

This two-yearly course is taught in 2006-2007, 2008-2009,...

This course is taught in the 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Marie-Luce Collard
Language: German
Level: Second cycle

Aims

Make the students and future teachers aware of the extent to which culture is an integrated part of teaching German as a foreign language.

By the end of the course, the student teacher will be able to :

- grasp the major role played by culture in foreign language learning and teaching
- create didactic sequences integrating cultural elements (be they high or low culture related)
- critically assess sequences produced by themselves or their fellow students

Main themes

Starting with a theoretical discussion on the aims of this education system, the seminar addresses concrete possibilities for the teaching of modern languages in the secondary education system. A more practical part is dedicated to didactic tools fitted to the proposed teaching methodology.

Content and teaching methods

Theoretical part based on the reading scientific articles in the field : what is culture ? should we teach culture ? what exactly should we teach ? how can we address cultural elements in a communicative type of teaching? etc.)

Creation, presentation and critical analysis of didactic sessions and sequences.
