HUMA3850 Inter-disciplinary seminar on international humanitarian aid: Part I

[30h] 5 credits

This course is taught in the 1st semester

Teacher(s): Amine Ait-Chaalal, Catherine Gourbin
Language: French
Level: Third cycle

Aims

To address a specific theme of humanitarian aid using a multi-disciplinary approach that embraces a number of different basic disciplines tackled in the first term.

To compare theory and practice in a debate with actors in the field.

Content and teaching methods

Content

Transversal analyses on subjects such as children in humanitarian crises, refugees, post-crisis rehabilitation, forgotten conflicts, and the media and humanitarian actions.

Methodology

Experts (including officials in NGOs and IGOs, representatives of the press, and politicians) from a range of horizons will be invited to debate a subject with students. This will be partly a residential seminar.

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

Participation and written work.

Students will be given a file of reading, depending on the themes chosen for each session.
