

Faculty of Theology

THEO1221 New Testament: the Letters of St. Paul

[30h] 2 credits

This two-yearly course is taught in 2007-2008, 2009-2010,...

This course is taught in the 2nd semester

Teacher(s): Jean-Marie Sevrin
Language: French
Level: First cycle

Aims

By the end of this course, the student should be able to point out the major traits of Pauline theology, linked to earlier traditions and at the life of the communities for which it was intended.

Main themes

To meet these objectives, the course covers the following :

- short approach to the entire Pauline corpus;
- exegesis of selected sections of an epistle, which are representative of Pauline theology;
- firm grounding in an analysis of Pauline rhetoric and theological vocabulary;
- comparison with data provided by other letters of the corpus.

Content and teaching methods

The Sections to be studied will be chosen from the First Letter to the Corinthians

Other information (prerequisite, evaluation (assessment methods), course materials recommended readings, ...)

without object